

OUR INVESTMENT COMMITTEE

Kristina Koutrakos, Chair

Director of Portfolio Strategies, Virginia Retirement System

Koutrakos is a director and member of the management committee for the VRS's $90 billion investment portfolio. In her role as strategist, she identifies and implements cross-asset class portfolios and thematic mandates. Her career in asset management spans over two decades with experience as a portfolio manager at BlackRock and Western Asset Management.

Alice W. Handy

Director of Advancement

Handy is the founder, former president, and CEO of Investure, an outsourced investment office for colleges and foundations with about $16.1 billion under management. Previously, Hardy spent twenty-nine years at the University of Virginia, as an investment officer, treasurer, and president of the university's investment management company.

Kristin L. Henningsen

Managing Director, CornerStone Partners

Henningsen is the managing director of the operations division of CornerStone Partners, an outsourced investment office in Charlottesville, and a partner of CornerStone's management company. CornerStone manages about $10 billion in assets for thirteen not-for-profit clients. Prior to joining CornerStone, she worked in public accounting and for an investment banking firm.

Frederick Nolde

Managing Director, Investure, LLC

Nolde is a director at Investure, the Charlottesville investment firm. Previously, he worked at BDC Investments, The Riverstone Group, and J.P. Morgan Asset Management. Nolde has a BA in economics from the University of Virginia, a masters degree from The Wharton School, and is a CFA charterholder.